Boulders Blocking Beauty Spot

Radiator Springs was rocked by a rockslide last night that closed the road to Redhood Valley.

Fortunately, no Cars have been reported totaled or even dented as a result of the rock barrage.

Local tow truck Tow Mater reported hearing a

"rumblin' and a thumpin' and a big ole boom! "I thought my junk was comin' alive to eat me!"

Other residents are concerned about missing friends. "I was talking with Sally just before it happened," reports three-time Piston Cup winner Lightning McQueen. "Has anybody seen her?"

Rockslide Traps Sally Carrera!

Local Race Cars have found a message from Sally Carrera, saying she has been trapped in Redhood Valley since last week's rockslide.

Sally has spent her time camping out, jogging on Twisting Tailfin Trails, and idling by the rockslide, hoping Cars would hear her cries for help.

Lightning McQueen asks that all Cars come visit him so that they can help out in the emergency effort to clear the rockslide!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH CARBURETOR COUNTY'S TOP COP!

"I Got It All Under Control!"

After last week's paint-blistering putdown of Sheriff by RSN gossip columnist Lexi Lowdown, we decided to catch up with Carburetor County's top cop to hear his half of the story.

We found Sheriff parked at Flo's V8 Cafe, where he was slurping on a frothy can of 50-grade oil.

"I am not a total copout!" grumbled Sheriff. "I've been bustin' my gaskets to clean up this town."

"And as you may have noticed, I've chased that Tuner Gang out of Radiator Springs. They won't be bothering us no more. You've seen the last of Bingo, Boots, Snootyrod, and their DJ! So there!"

Sheriff would like to congratulate the Carburetor County community for their help in locating and capturing Boost, Wingo, Snot Rod, and DJ.

The Tuner Gang has been on a crime rampage that led them to steal various town landmarks. Their most shocking theft was Stanley's Statue.

Sheriff mobilized local Cars who found the Tuner Gang in hiding because they had run out of gas.

The Tuners confessed they tossed Stanley into the chasm in Redhood Valley. Mater's trusty 'n' rusty tow hook rescued the founder of Radiator Springs and put him back in his rightful place.

Hit the Road, Mack!

Calling all Carburetor County Race Cars! These are your last two weeks to have slippin' and slidin' fun at Mack's Holiday Bash ('N' Crash).

Lightning's favorite long-hauler will be packing up his holiday festival in two weeks and heading back out onto the nation's highways.

"It's always sad to see Mack go," says Lightning McQueen. "But the cool part is he'll be back in a couple of months."

"You haven't seen the last of me!" chuckled Mack. "I've got big plans for my next party." All winter-sports-loving Race Cars: Go hit that ice one more time before it's gone!

Backfire Canyon Is a Big Blast!

"Almost all my paint got scalded off, my hoses fried, and my radiator overheated!" says famed test car Smasher McCrasher. "But it was fun!"

Cars stay out of Backfire Canyon because of its powerful super hot blasts of volcanic "backfires." But no longer. As of next week, this race is on!

Lightning McQueen himself chose Backfire as the third Piston Cup track. "Mater took me there and had me park right in front of a blast hole. He thought it was funny. It was kind of funny!"

Pro racers are warned that it will take more than just speed and skill to be able to beat this track. You'll need something more, that winners call GOOD LUCK!

Mack's Summer Car-B-Q!

Mack is BACK! This time, Lightning's favorite long-hauler has parked in Fillmore's Fields where it's time for Mack's Summer Car-B-Q!

Every year Mack likes to throw a big bash in the fields with picnic tables, grills, fireworks, and the super fun slippery slide.

Last year's event had to be cancelled because of the unfortunate rockslide incident that trapped Sally in Redhood Valley.

This year, all looks good for a successful Car-B-Q. There's no chance of another rockslide, unless the tractors get scared by all the party noise and stampede. And how likely is that? We hope NOT AT ALL!

Mack's Summer Car-B-Q Spectacular

Yes Cars, it's on! Mack has arrived in Fillmore's Fields with his Mack's Summer Car-B-Q. Pull up to a picnic table, get some hot grease from the grill, and then take a ride on the water slide!

Last year's Car-B-Q was called off because of the rockslide that trapped Sally in Redhood Valley. Seems unlikely there'd be another rockslide this year, unless the Tractors go on a stampede. But Tractors never stampede unless frightened by loud party noises. So we should be just fine.

Lightning McQueen Who?

You know who Francesco Bernoulli is, right? How could you not? He's a really fast Formula Race Car. From Italy! And he's got those open Wheels! Sally, you know what I'm talking about.

Mater's Tall Tales Get Taller

Our toothy Tow Truck is telling Tall Tales again... an International Spy Ring, a purple Car with wings, and the Queen of England. Sure, Mater. And I'm a Spy for a little Car with a monocle!

Mack Opens Car-B-Q Store!

Got any extra Car Coins? As part of his annual Car-B-Q in Fillmore's Fields, Mack's Store has now opened.

Remember -- Mack's Store will only be around until the end of the month when Mack leaves. So shop for your limited edition items now!

Mack has everything you need to have throw a Car-B-Q in your own Yard: picnic tables, picnic umbrellas, grills, and of course fireworks!

That's not all that's new around town. Make sure to empty out a Fizzy Fuel slot for Spray Ray, available at Fizzy Fuel stands everywhere. And don't forget to pay Mack a visit. He just might have something special for you!

"Yeah, of course I've seen Hay Bale Booms used on the race track. And I've always wanted to have them for my Home," says Car Jumpy Shakibolts.

"So when I saw they were on sale at Mack's Store, I cleared my Yard and bought myself twenty 3-packs. That's 60 Hay Bale Booms!"

"And I haven't stopped bouncing since! And I'm not the only one who's bouncing," says Jumpy Shakibolts.

"I figured out that the best place to put a whole bunch of Hay Bale Booms is right where your Friends arrive in your Yard. Just tell them to come visit and watch their surprise as they start bouncing all over. Don't forget to laugh!"

Lexi Lowdown Does Car-B-Q

Mack's Car-B-Q is turning out to be THE party of the Summer, thanks to you.

A special Shout-out to Champion Grease Grillers Thunder Pistontire and Chilly Dealsignal! And Angel Quickroad who went on the Water Slide backwards!

But the absolute best part so far? Super Spray Ray Fizzy Fuel! That was one epic water fight. My tires are still soaked from it!

Mad Tractor Trouble

Moo moo moo! No one wants to hear it. Upset by all the Car-B-Q noise and grill smoke, a couple Tractors are getting out of control. One actually mowed me down on the Water Slide!

Look Out! Lemons on the Loose!

Are evil Lemon Cars invading Radiator Springs? That's what my tipsters tell me! Keep a lookout, and remember: When life gives you evil Lemons, make them wish they had evil Lemon-aid!

⚠ WARNING! RSN ALERT! WATCH OUT FOR TRACTORS!

Watch Out for the Tractors!

RSN ALERT - Radiator Springs has asked the RSN to issue an All Racer Alert, especially to Cars attending Mack's Summer Car-Bar-B-Q.

While most Cars have a peaceful time, some have NOT. Some picnics have been suddenly invaded by a Tractor stampede!

Sheriff thinks it's the noise from the Car-B-Q that has "got the tractors all riled up." It's true that the Car-B-Q is located awfully close to the Tractor pen in Fillmore's Fields.

"I just hope these stampedes stop. If this keeps up, they might cause a rockslide," says Sheriff.

"If you see a stampede, I got one word of advice for you -- GET OUT OF THE WAY!"

ROCKSLIDE Traps TRACTORS

Stampede Causes Rockslide!

RSN ALERT - Last week's Tractor stampedes have caused a rockslide in Radiator Springs. Sheriff says an unknown number of tractors have been trapped behind the rocks.

"I told you so," Sheriff grumbled in an exclusive interview. "But nobody listens to me."

Lightning McQueen and Sally Carrera are asking that all local Cars help out in this catastrophe.

"We need everybody to pitch in," says Lightning. "Drive to the rockslide and try to rescue one of those tractors!"

"Their Mooing is so sad," added Sally. "Please help!"

Headlight Lasers Are a Blast!

RSN FOCUS -- What is Headlight Laser Tag? Surely you've noticed it by now! It's the colorful new sport that's become Carburetor County's latest fad.

Cars are out in the street (and just about everywhere else) blasting each other with green, red and purple lasers. It looks like a lot of fun.

But some Cars have taken it to another level. They've organized themselves into two teams: the Spies versus the Lemons.

The Lemons are Cars who have customized themselves to look like famous Lemon Cars

And the Spies -- well, nobody knows exactly who they are. Do you?

Global Race Goes Local!

Racers around Carburetor County have been wondering -- who won the World Grand Prix? Of course, no one officially won, as the global race had to be called off.

So Lightning McQueen and Francesco Bernoulli have decided to bring back the World Grand Prix!

And where's the Prix going to be? Right here in Carburetor County. You'll find the starting line on Main Street in Radiator Springs under the World Grand Prix banner. To race, follow the hay bale route to the finish line!

Lightning and Francesco will be making special appearances this weekend to kick off the race. Join them and beat them if you can!

New Clinic Opens, Honors Doc!

Have you got what it takes to fix up other Cars? Head on up Main Street to Doc's Clinic, where Cars with mechanical problems can find help.

The clinic is named in honor of Lightning McQueen's mentor, friend, and longtime Radiator Springs resident "Doc" Hudson Hornet.

"This is just how Doc would have wanted it," says Lightning McQueen. "He liked to keep Cars running smoothly."

At Doc's Clinic, you'll have the chance to diagnose and treat all sorts of Car problems, from mysterious knocking noises, white smoke coming out of the tailpipes, and even total transmission failure!

Scaryator Springs is Back!

This week Radiator Springs officially enters the spooky season by becoming "Scaryator Springs."

Halloween decorations are going up around town, and local Cars are planning their "Haunted Homes" and wondering what costumes they're going to wear this year.

"I got this great idea for this year's Scaryator Springs. But I'm not supposed to tell anybody about it yet," says local tow-truck Tow Mater.

"I just hope everybody agrees to do it. I think Cars would love it if they could get treats from all the local store owners. If it weren't top secret, I'd be able to tell you the idea. But I can't. So I won't."

Halloween Battles in the Streets

Cars on the road in Radiator Springs report that a huge rivalry has broken out between Ninja Cars, Zombie Cars and local Lemons.

Every year at this time, swarms of Zombie Cars have invaded Carburetor County trying to eat other Cars' brakes: "Eat brakes! Eat brakes!"

Usually Ninja Cars speed into action to protect the area from this spooky stockcar threat. But this year the Ninjas are under surprise attack from local Lemons, who are using laser blasts to prevent Ninjas from stopping the Zombies.

Why would the Lemons do this? Seems they want other Cars to get their brakes eaten. Then Lemons will rule! NINJAS! HELP!!!

Lemons Ruin Thanksgiving

Last year, local Cars helped local tow truck Tow Mater create a new holiday -- Tanksgiving!

The Tanksgiving holiday is when everybody gets together and sips on some gas tanks with their buddies. As Mater says, "It's time to be tankful!" But you can't be tankful if there aren't any tanks

What happened to all the tanks? "I'm not for sure," says Mater. "I had 'em all piled up and ready to go. Then they just disappeared!"

According to Sheriff, tire tracks near the tank site indicate the presence of Lemons. "I think those Lemons took Mater's tank and buried them up near Willy's Butte." Mater's asking for help, so stop by and see him!

Tanks for Saving Thanksgiving!

Mater's plans for a Happy Tanksgiving holiday were in serious doubt after his collection of gas tanks disappeared. Sheriff issued an official statement saying, "Maybe those Lemons did it."

Mater asked his fellow vehicles to help: "We can't have no kind a holiday without tank-sippin'!"

The Tanksgiving Holiday was created only last year by Mater and local Cars.

Despite the threat of Lemon attacks, Mater's friends were determined to find and retrieve the missing tanks. All their hard work paid off when the tanks were discovered in Willys Butte. Tanksgiving will be going full blast at Flo's! Check it out

MACK IS BACK

WITH HIS HOLIDAY BASH 'N CRASH

Mack's Holiday Bash ('N' Crash)

Lightning McQueen's faithful truck Mack always spends a couple of months before the holidays driving up and down the highways looking for fun stuff to bring back to Radiator Springs.

"Yep," says Mack. "It's a tough job. But I've got a good eye for fun and lots of room in the back."

What exciting things will Mack bring with him this time? Well, if you attended last year's Holiday Bash 'N' Crash, you'll see some familiar skating and snow action.

Check out the stores to decorate your Yards to make them Holiday party palaces!
